infinitereality has collaborated with Michael Garza since they first argued over the complexity of the vocal bridge of “Exit Music” during her Periscope livestream.

Their main collaboration, "I Remember", was co-created, co-written, and co-produced via email and text messages across the world. It was released on September 11, 2019.

Since then, Michael Garza has been a featured artist on many releases by infinitereality, being credited as a featured musician, guitarist and vocalist.

They have also collaborated on two covers together, and plan to do more.

COLLABORATIONS/BRIAN MINNICK

She has also collaborated with Brian Minnick since early 2022, together creating synchronistic video and audio-related projects.

The artwork for the album “Jailbreak The Universe”, was inspired by a screenshot from one of his videos.

He features on “THE INFINITE CUE”, “THE CONVOLUTED SESSIONS” and “THE OPERATOR” EPs.

On these albums, infinitereality chops and screws his original tracks and unique audio sounds with her own music.
